

Plant Nurseries in the Washington, D.C. Region

This list was compiled using the DC Gardens website and Choose Natives. Visit their website for a complete list of nurseries in the region. The following list is NOT inclusive of all nurseries in the area, and a nursery's inclusion on the list is NOT an endorsement. Not all the plants sold at these nurseries are native. A brief list of Native and Invasive plants can be found on the DOEE Website. Be sure to consult the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service Native Plant guide and your Rain Garden or BayScaping design prior to purchasing any plants.
